“I’ve Been Framed” Shot Composition Assignment

You have one class period to shoot as many of the shots as possible. If you do not complete all of the shots, you will work with what you have. Be sure to allow time to return to class and download your video footage. The shots do not have to be shot in order, but you will be expected to know them later. Audio will not be used in this assignment. You may want to review the types of shots at <http://www.mediacollege.com/video/shots/> .

- An Establishing Shot
- A medium close-up of a person
- Two people talking (a two shot)
- Over the shoulder shot
- Two people talking to each other, first film one person by themselves, then film the other person
- An Extreme Close-up
- A person walking to a location
- Shot of your choice: _____
- Shot of your choice: _____
- Shot of your choice: _____

List any problems you have during your filming, with your shot composition or how you worked as a film crew.
